Proclamation for a Day of Thanks.

The inhabitant of Indiana have had rare ly un occasion to be more thankful to Goo for the favors he has bestowed upon them than during this year. Crime has been less than during any one previous, in proportion to them; industry has at no time been ex bors; an abundant harvest has been their reward. It is the duty of every believer in God to return his thanks for these bless

I. Ashbel P. Willard, Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby appoint and set apart. Thursday, the 24th of November next as a day of Thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, and reccommend its ap propriate observance by the citizens of the

In testimony whereof, I hereto set my 25th day of October, A. D., 1859.

CYRUS L. DUNHAM, Secretary of State

The "Irrepressible Conflict."

When Gov. Seward asserted that the syn in "irrepressible conflict, and that one or shment and horror, and they have not yet

"The differences on Slavery began at the not spee be was caudidate for Governor of "Re [Mr. Webster] not only confidently anticipated what the lapse of seven years newly acquired and the newly organized

"It is true that, in interpreting the fun-demental law [ the Constitution | on this between the two sections of the Umon presents itself. This has ever been the case first or last, in relation to every great question -Is not it clear as mad that The Express

LO THE ARRESTOF "CAPT." COOK.

hand and cause to be affixed the sea

ASHBEL P. WILLARD

The Diamond Wedding.

the "Dismond Wedding" - Don Oviedo, to the conclusion not to do to This is a I again drop you a line, for the purpose of a wealthy Cuban, was married to a Miss sage conclusion of the gentleman. The Bartlett The bride is said to be hand fact is be cannot answer them, and well letting you know how we feel up here in some and about sweet sixteen; the bride. does he know it -- Journal groum is old and rich. January purchase. That is the fact, Colonel, we can't an ly delightful.

skillful General. He attacked the young one moment's respectful consideration. ents-next he gave the father presents- Democratic party? then he showered gifts of fabulous value Before the repeal of the Missouri Com-pelf-making merchandise of their own of blood?

C. Stedman could contain himself no lon release, also. ger, and he boiled over in some cutting. It will be recollected that Governor Wilverses, which appeared in the New York lard visited the East during the sommer, Tribune a few days ago. He hit some and of course passed immediately through hard licks at snobism generally, and this Harper's Ferry, on his way to the Federal case in particular. Washin A Bart Capital Cook was a school teacher in lest, the father of the sold and purchased Harpers Ferry at that time-the Governor daughter, grows indignant, and by his surely did not pass by, without stopping friend, demands the name of the author of and seeing the brother of his lady. The the "pome." Sted nan acknowledges the world has not yet been informed what was authorship. Bartlett then declares the the occasion of our Governor's visit east production disreputable to himself, to his on this occasion, and hence we conclude dusghter and to all his household and de- he was after no good. mands an immediate retraxit on part of It will be recollected that at the same Stedman, or pistols and coffee," and then time our Democratic Governor was spendleft the choice with the poet. Stedman re- ing his time in and around the Federal fased the retraxit and preferred piotols for City, two other on less distinguished Demtwo. Bartlett at this point discovered the ocratic politicians left the State, and the social position of Stedman was not equal first we heard of them, they were in the to his, and hence, instead of fighting ciry of Baltimore-but a few hour's ride would seek redress before the judicial tri from Harpers Ferry. Those gentlemen bunals-and into Court he has gone. All were the Bon. S. H. Buskirk and our that he will ever receive from a sensible neighbor, Grafton F. Cookerly Their trip.

But this is just what it is reasonable to the interests of our State Prison, but as suppose would be the subterfuge of a man, this State had no prison in that quarter, woman, upon which a foolish old man was been Chief Justice of the Provisional Gov. hanging sitks and diamonds and pearls .- ernment, if old Brown succeeded Let us A display at the expense of an intended treat this matter seriously, for such a Ir Gov. Chase has appointed the Hon. son-in-law-how humiliating to high- conspiracy to subvert civil power, has not W. Y. Golson Judge of the Supreme Court have known hundreds of dollars spent by river in flat boats. Never was there so githing to give them as an outfit to com- thousand implements of war, and with sevyoung men to marry a huge buildie of cost- all the South, and the rest of mankind ly silks, and then take a "bridle tower," But that is not the prin . Is not this a shed in bridal presents and a bridal ward. Smith was privy to this whole matter be. and the Red River. They will set off, rate, and the rest of the household actual- cause he wrote a letter to John Brown. ly suffering for the common comforts of and we say the evidence is equally strong prestian life. We have seen the pride of the human that Willred is particips criminis, because heart thus show itself in all classes of so- his brother in-law is one of Capt. Brown's ciety, and only wondered that mothers first officers, and that the Governor on a worry; work is healthy; you can hardly and fathers could be so foolish, and there where near the bloody battle-field. The ry is rust upon the blade. It is not the fore we are not surprised at this "Diamond editor say Joshua R. Giddings is also one Wedding" in the great city of New York burglars has been discovered, and a con- was near Harpers Ferry about the time this Methodist church, was asked by the min and coatless; but he was a fine repre- Mr. Botts said that on receiving the siderable number of the band arrested at had no business east, unless u was, to have Omaha City N. T. Two of the principal a finger in this pie leaders escaped after being arrested being called, gave a verdict of "not guilty." know it."

The editor of the Express says that he A few days ago in the city of New York , had been thinking that he would answer there took place, what is now known as some of our articles in regard to the late

ing May at an extravagant price. Don awer them, "and well do we know it," and Oviedo was not only rich, but of course he honestly do we confess it. We migot just | bad ; and I can assure you we do not feel was of noble extraction, and that was as well attempt to answer the buzzing bad, after such a glorious victory-a victoenough to turn the head of the mother of noise made by the letting off of gas from 'ry of principle and light over correption Miss B The old and decrepid Don woo- any other gas pipe. We might just as well and darkness-a "darkness not only of ed, and the parents sold the fair girl of six undertake to reply to the escaping of wind reason, but of the moral nature"-a victory teen, for dollars and cents. During the from an overcharged keg of lager. Noth of Republican principles over the darkness time he was pressing his suit the great me- ing would be more difficult. It is very of Democracy. tropolis resounded with descriptions of the hard to reply to idle, windy assertions, but We have elected the whole Republican costly presents he was making to his fair if the editor of the Journal will point out ticket-a Governor, Lieut Governor, Sec "ladie." The magnificent establishments to us, one single point he has established retary of State, Attorney General, Treasof Surwart, Tiffiany, Ball and Black & Co. in his articles on Harpers Ferry, we will urer, two Congressmen, and will of course were searched through to fin I presents suf- reply to it. We are unable to find anything elect two U. S. Senators ; thereby accuring ficiently gorgeous for the beautiful affi- in his series, but the most vapid and windy four more in Congress, which will anced. She was actually smothered in assertions-the idle cant of a sublimated enough to elect the President, provided the silks and bespangled in diamonds. The demagogue's pen. 'Tis true, the editor of choice should have to be made at Washold Don was in love with the girl, and the Journal says that the Republican par, ingion. I never saw such exercion in my the mother and father were in love with ty is responsible for all this trouble in Virthe Don's money. A Spanish Don is a ginia, but that does not make it so, nor dangerous thing, and to be a Senora is tru. does one single honest man in the whole country believe it. Our neighbor will cer-The old Senor Oviedo managed his suit !aiuly not expect us to reply to an asser most adroitly-precisely in accordance tion so unsupported by the facts as thiswith modern tactics. The approaches that rests on no other foundation than his were made after the manner of the most declaration. The case does not command

Miss' heart, in the way most certain of suc- We will however take the other side of coss. I first established the important the question, and commence by asking our fact, that although he was of small conse neighbor if this movement of John Brown's quence himself, his money was omnipo- is not the immediate consequence of the tent. He gave the mother handsome pres- pro-slavery doctrines advocated by the

on the daughter-then he gave all three promise, the American people were measa present, in the way of a fine house for urably at peace on the slavery question them all to live to Of course this turned That line was broken down, and by whom? the heads of the "old folks," and the bar. -the Democratic party, led to the attack gain and sale of the daughter was agreed by Stephen A Douglas Border Ruffianupon. The Doo was in ecstacies, and in ism then prevailed all along the Missouri love-the poor girl "was in the hands of line, and throughout Kansas Free her friends." She was i'ke a sheep in the State men were driven from their homes, shambles, and was passive. Her fingers their property destroyed and themselves glowed with drawonds, and her neck murdered. Who did this? Buford's and sparkled with the same gems. Her dress Atchinson's pro-slavery ruffians, backed es exceeded her knowledge of addition .- and encouraged by the pro-slavery Demo-She was the cavy of all the mothers of the cratic party, both North and South Acity and all mercenary young Misses. The mong the Free State sufferers, no man susold Cuban pressed his suit, the parents tained greater losses than did "Osawattowere determined, and the sale was consum- mie Brown." He lost two sons and all his mated. The daughter was given into the property. He vowed to have revenge, and hands of Ishmaelites and her happiness he went to Harper's Ferry to seek it. Are forever biasted. Shobism had attained its not his acts there, the legitimate result of epimination, and "quiet reigned in War- border ruffian outrages, and Democratic action? Certainly they are. The affair at The marriage of this old Don's wealth to Harpers Ferry is an individual enterprise this young woman, just glowing in youth of John Brown's, brought about by the and beauty, is only infamous-lisgraceful wrongs he has heretofore sustained at the and contemptible. It is the absolute sale hands of the pro-slavery democracy. Are of a woman's charms, by the parents, for they not then responsible for this shedding daughter. Does any one for a moment. The fact is, we are not so sure, but Old think the bride loves the bridegroom? As Osawattomie has been inveigled into this well might you expect to find the tender matter by Democrats. Of those who were passion existing between a Paris belle and engaged in this conspiracy to depose the a Hottentot. She does not even respect chivalric Governor of Virginia, Kagi, Mofhim, and a few short years of unhappiness fit, Cook, Parsons and Lehman are said to belong to the Democratic party. Cook, it The bauble of wealth-the dazzle of ex- will be remembered, is the brother-in-law ternal show, is enchanting when in the of the Democratic Governor of this State, distance, but us you approach it, the en- and it is now rumored that Capt. Brown is chaniment vanishes, and the dazzle be- related by degrees of consauguinity to Jas. comes oppressive. Paiatial residences Buchanan, Cook escaped and fled into elicit the admiration and the envy of the pennsylvania, and was there arrested and beholder when they are the property of an has been sent to Virginia for trial. A. P. other, but when possessed, aias I too late Willard, Democratic Governor of Indiana, we find, that more than marble halls hung J. E. McDonald, Democratic Attorney in tapestry and polished to parian white- General for this State, and D. W. Voorhees, ness, is required to carry happiness to the United States District Attorney under the heart or make the mind at ease. present Administration, have all gone in The finale of this "Diamond Wedding" hot haste, to the Old Dominion, to endease a fit conclusion to such a disgraceful vor to secure the release of the prisoner .proceeding. Of course the sensible world Cook we think will be acquitted, and we was all the time laughing at the whole would not be surprised if all the rest of thing, and satire was compelled to hold the Democrats engaged in this matter, both its sides. But it seems that one E. would be sufficiently insane to justify their east was ostensibly, as they said, to look to who would suffer the display to be made, the excuse won't do-can't be swallowed. If The Atlantic Monthley has been pur nal. which has so ridiculously characterized Well, what is the conclusion of all this? chased by Ticknor & Fields, who will this wedding, from the engagement to the Why clearly, that Williard, Buskirk and continue to publish it. daughter acted only the part of the show fien," and that our neighbor was to have been consisted since one Mr. Casca stuck of Ohio, vice Judge Swan, resigned But who has not witnessed the aping of a knife in one Julius Casar-since Crom this extravagant display before and at the well dismissed the Long Parliament, and France Snow .- It is reported that snow time of a wedding, even in the West. We | Aaron Burr desired to sail down the Ohio written a letter about his "friend J. R. G." but the friction If An extensive gang of horse thieves & complicity is equally strong, because he If A sailor looking very serious in a ing along the dusty street barefooted, Wethink now we have established the Minnesota Correspondence. TRAVERSE, Minn.,

Oct. 18th, 1859 this Northern region.

Well, in the first place, we feel pretty well, as we always do when we don't feel life as they did make, and in one place kept the polls open till near eight o'clock. fying Nature has become lifeless. had been sent for. We have not all the of man. They wither and decay, person returns yet, but both parties admit that fying the destruction of his natural body Our wheat, oats and rye are all very heavy, and were secured in the best manner, or nearly so, the weather being so tine. I think Minnesota will have plenty of grain, and to spare, this year; but the prices are low. One contract of 15,000 bushels of oats was taken at 42 cents, delivered in sacks. Potatoes are good, but not quite so large a yield this year as usual. Hay was plenty, and very fine has been deliv will be able to live here this year as easily have a fine country, climate and soil.

The State has got into a bad fix-deeply in debt-as well as individuals. Nearly $300 000 we are liable for already, besides the $2,500,000 loss to the Railroad Companies, owing to the misrule of the Democracy. When the subject was submitted to the people two years ago, you recollect that, in one of my letters to you, I stated that Gov. Gorman was opposing the measure with all his force, and that the day was not far distant when we would all acknowledge he was right; and that time has already come, and come with a vengeance, oo. We have loaned our credit to those Companies to the amount of $2,500,000, at the rate of $10,000 a mile for grading, conbasis for banking ; thereby establishing a envy value at which Gov. Sibley took all other them; and having raised an abundance, this life, but happiness? Is there a goal at least, to hear his trial they are not pressed for the necessaries of in the path toward Heaven beyond this?

almost conceive that I see many of your familiar countenances, as your names occur in the various scenes of business .-Some appear to meet the approbation of the public, and others do not. But, oh! how many have been called to meet their God, since I left there! Whether they will meet his approbation or not, is not for man to say. It would certainly be very pleasant to visit my old home again, where I spent so many pleasant years of my life, with scarcely a single unpleasant or unkind feeling toward any one Respectfully, G. H. SPENCER the Chicago & Alton Kailroad, was shot at handing the mail from the car, by a merchapt named Hughes. Hughes suspected Pleasant an improper intimacy existed between his wife and Williams. At last accounts Will-foolish parents at the wedding feasts of gantic an insurrection, on so magnificent a Missasora Executor. - Fairbault County their daughters, and then not have one far- scale. Twenty senied men, with two is in giving 160 Republican majority, and Waseca gives 115. Jackson and Martin other two daughters assist as their sercounties are about a tie. The exact ma vices are required, both in and out of received this morning mence the battle of life. We have known eral bushels of letters in the reserve, dely jurity for Ramsey in Brown county is 42 - the house. Becker's majority only 27 The whole of STARTLING REPLY .-- Old Prof. S. and when they return, fail to pay their Democratic movement, is the question! - Southern Minnesots is now heard from .- was one the instructors at Darmouth have resided in this County for many tailor bills. We have known money lav The editor of the Journal says that Gerritt All the North is in except the Lake Shore College, years ago, and was, withal, years Insanity is hereditary in that fam-

> Lilis not work, that kills men; it is revolution that destroyes the machinery, scheme was being concocted, and that he ister if he felt any change. "Nary red." sentative of "nature's noblemen." above dispatch, he went to the jail, with fact beyond question, that this whole Riour to Strat -B. B. Root, of the Le- all the people in Hanover go barefoo- ily there has never been any insanity. On line of the prisoner; has copied a letter for Acquirren. - In the case we mentioned thing is a Democratic insurrection, and porte Union, justifies an Irishman for steal- ted?" yesterday—the Cincinnati & Indianapolis State are parties to it. His first wife showed any of his hand-writing, and save all the all times at his factory, near the Canal call of Commerce says it is in conse-R. R. vs. R. Dente o, for Trespass: a jury "can't answer this article, and well dees he the ground that the said editor had two trouble of proving it. He was prepared to Basin, where he will be pleased to meet quence of assessments for the new rather settling reply. costs, a thing unboard of before.

STRAY THOUGHTS.

Ma. Epiron :- There is one thing we, the escence of you, the "lords of creation. We can love-don't start. I do not meanlove -love the forest, the prairies, the mounand the garging, meandering streamlove Nature and Nature's God.

hat inspires so many holy emotions as this the Autumn. It is peculiarly a season for reflection and for thought. Nature is in repose. Vegetation has grown its full the neighborhood of Brown's house, who so that he ought to reach here at 12 or 1 of the defence. growth, and is being resolved back into its original element. The inert life which is infused throughout the whole universe, is paralyzed. The hand of the Almighty like an enchantress' wand, has passed over , the earth, and by its mesmeric touch fruiti-

in order to get some distant voters that | The leaves fall-emblematical of the fall there will not be less than 3000 majority. Their essential parts, that which once gave We have had a delightful Fall so far, them life, is not lost, but only reposing and I presume the early frost we all had and gathering strength; and when the did not do half the damage here that it did Spring comes they will again, in a differmuch farther South. Most of the corn was | ent element be driven up through the ters, not the men There is also a letter ut of danger—the fodder only being hurt. fibrous wood and bloom out in renewed from J. E. Cook, stating that the Marylife and redoubled beauty-fit representa-other day made me love the city none the their side. less, but Nature more. There is a stillness. Mr. Johnston, U. S. Marshal from Cleve was made the counsel for the Common silence in Heaven" Is there, in the lan- from justice from Ohio. ered at $3,50 to $4 a ton. I presume we in the woods there is no hum of bee prisoners. as you Hoosiers. Upon the whole, we still, and distinctly can be heard, dropping caused by fear of being seized like those everything charged against him, he had ests, must certainly have been a happy should name them. sequently we have that amount of grading and won. They trusted Nature, and she duce insurrection; second, for treason to partial trial. to the $100; and I presume the pay was to the Great Maniton for relief. It must sidering his duty through, having left. those bonds, which were deposited as the that even the proud Anglo-Saxon might the bar they might select counsel.

Nature's great heart beats still, and the Circuit Count.-Judge Parker's Court to be put in.

up all over the State, but when they were succeeded the red man-have measurably which the Court consented. called on to redeem their issues they were passed away; but their children remember Railroad bonds, "went up." But the crash by an innate refinement and feminine deligood deeds and long dresses. Doff the unbecoming quest iams was alive and it was thought he would Lumber for building purposes, will find a are some twenty pages more of the ar at M D. Topping & Co's, north of the ca- the Court .- Reporter.

stantly on her arrival all the news she noon was occupied in obtaining a jury.

There is a widow living in Erie county Minnesota, named Roberts, who, with her four daughters, does all fell at Crestline on Friday night to the the labor on a farm of one hundred acres. The eldest daughter has charge of the plowing department while the youngest superintends the team. The be off duty, when he chanced to meet closively proved by witnesses residing Mr. Page, a sturdy farmer from East here, who will doubtless attend the Court, Hanover, with a load of wood, trudg- if desired

Professor, "I should like to know if sired him to say that in his father's fam-

TELEGRAPHIC wife. Some portions of the dispatch he Mr. Hunter said he would prefer to prove

FROM CHARLESTOWN lain and the valley. Love the storm and goodness of God, and that he will rescue for that reason, he does repeat to the Court the convention. It was headed William the calm, the shadow and the bright sun. him from the perils that surround him .- his request made yesterday, that time be Charles Morris, President, and H. Kagie, shine Love the dashing brooklet, the He says that he has had rifles leveled at given for the arrival of foreign counsel Secretary. He also read a letter from J.R. lings leaping cascade, the dripping water fall him, knives at his throat, and his life in A dispatch was received from Cleveland Giddings, and one from Garret Smith about As great peril as it now is, but that God signed Daniel Tilden, dated 26th inst. the Kansas work, already published. Perhaps there is no season of the year that God is with him, and fears nothing any use for counsel to leave last night. To on the prosecution. The evidence elicited gress elect from this District, has collected the jury would be sworn this morning, and Joseph A. Brewer and Mr. Kitzmiller > searched it before the arrival of the ms- o'clock to night. them is a roll of the conspirators, containing 47 signatures; also a receipt from Ho race Greely for letters, &c., received from Brown; a traced map from Chambersburg sel at present here. to Brown's house, and a copy of a letter from Brown, stating that the arrival of too many at a time would excite suspic on that they should arrive singly. Brown tells them to let the women write the let-about the quiet woods that is truly sublime. land, arrived this morning. He recog- wealth deems it his duty to call attention boly, divine and rapturous feeling! Now entertained of an attempt to rescue the present prisoner at the bar, they were pre-to carry them South and sell them.

heart of his creatures goes up and holds met at ten o'clock. Grand Jury called After the point was fully discussed by communion with the Giver of all this beau. Capt. Brown has consented to allow the counsel on both sides, the Court dety, this lovelmess-this silence. Then is it Messrs Faulkner and Botts to act as his cided to proceed with the trial. not a privilege to thus see and love Nature? counsel, they assuring him that they will. The Jury having been sworn, the m -Nature as it comes fresh from the Maker, defend him faithfully, and give him the dictment was read. advantage of every privilege that the law Harding addressed the Jury, detailing I have often thought, in my imaginings, will allow. Stevens declares he does not the seizure of the armory, killing the bridge that the race of men who first possessed desire to be defended by Northern counsel. keeper and citzens, producing insurrection, and the gossip-that insiduous viper-of prisoners, and were discharged. True bill ishable with death. He concluded by society, never disturbs the genial current was read against each of the prisoners, urging the Jury to cast aside all prejudices, of their content. They lived, loved, wooed first, for conspiring with negroes to pro- and to give the prisoner a fair and imwe sold to a banker in St. Paul at 95 cents If famine pervaded the land, they looked counsel for the prisoners, Faulkner, con- case. received in the money which was issued on have been a confiding, happy life-one The Court stated that as members of verse upon the case, nor to allow others to

After consulting Brown Mr. Botts said

Hunter said the request was rather pre- to be there in person. should be the great aim of life. Not that and the question could then be considered. rest of Cook.

jealousy, hate or revenge. That happiness The reading of the indictment occupied was led over from the jail, walking very ted arms, and others interested, as quickly which, like the perfume that goes up to about twenty minutes. The prisoners feebly, and laid down on the cot. Heaven, springs from virtuous actions and each responded to the usual question, not The Jury was called, and Mr. Botts and of orbes and Brown for an insurrection.

it is delightful, at this season of the year, structed him to say that he was mentally to dash away from the city life, and loose and physically unable to to proceed with one's self in the "grand old woods." How- the trial at this time. He has also heard ever, the "city life" of Terre Haute is not to day that counsel of his own choice will yet very perceptible. She is only a village be here, whom he will, of course, prefer .putting on city airs. A little Miss dressed He asks only for a delay of two or three out in high heel shoes, a love of a bonnet, days, and it seems but a reasonable repretension, and we are but a beautiful lit. The counsel for the prosecution argued SHOT .- A Mr. Williams, Route Agent on the village, crowning one of the most de against the motion at great length, and the lightful prairies anywhere to be found in Court seemed willing to grant a reasons-Carlinsville, on Friday last, as he was the great West. Yet, Mr. Editor, a trip to ble delay if physical inability was shown. the country even from a village, is not un- but would only grant it for the purpose LELIA. of assuring a fair trial, PINE SHINGLES. - Those who want Pine add nothing new or interesting. There choice lot of Shingles, Lath and Flooring, gament of counsel, and the remarks of

CHARLESTOWN, Oct. 27 .- The storm L7 There is some talk of establishing a last even ng prevented the transmission of newspaper on board the Great Eastern, not the latter part of the proceedings of the resolved to hold their next convention in but also as a means of communicating in pone the trial, and the whole of the after

Brown occupied a cot, on which he was carried into the court room. The trial will be resumed this morning. when counsel for Brown is expected from

LATER .- Brown was brought into Court this morning, being able to walk, but he mmediately laid himself down on his cot at full length.

Mr. Botts read the following dispatch.

Faulkner and Botts, Charleston, Va.

whably. If so Ramsey's majority will about as blunt and straightforward a ily. His mother's sister died with it, and be 4,000. He is now 4,100 shead - Min specimen of humanity as ever walked, a daughter of that sister has been two being considered a little crabbed by years in the lunatic asvium. A son and mer, he was taking his usual stroll also been in the lunatic asylum, and another around the village, keeping his "eye son of that brother is now income, and in out" for any "fast" student who might close restraint. These facts can be conknew to be correct, of other portions he is them by Mr. Campbell. weaker vessels, can do without the acqui- Dispatches by the Union Line. ignorant. He does not put in any ples of sane he is totally unconscious of it. Mr. each of which was identified by Campbell CHARLESTOWN, Va., Oct. 26 .- Brown has Botts also stated that he was further in They were then handed to Brown, who said to the population; health has been secured made no confession, but on the contrary structed by Brown, that, rejecting the plea they were his letterssays that he has full confidence in the of insanity entirely, and seeking no delay Mr. Hunter read the list of members of celled; peace has prevailed during their lahas always been at his side. He knows asking of Brown whether it would be of A number of witnesses were examined Alexander R. Botiler, member of Con- this dispatch an answer was returned that no new facts, > rines. Letters are also in the possession. The course taken by Brown this morning. of Andrew Hunter, Esq. who has also a makes it evident that he sought no post. John Copeland, the mulatto prisoner number of letters obtained from the house ponement for the purpose of delay, as he from Oberlin, Ohio, has made a full con by the marines, and other papers. Among rejects the plea of insanity, still, in his fession to the U. S. Marshal, Mr. Martin of ceived in the form of a telegraph dispatch. Northern Ohio, whose names have heretotand election was about to come off, the decision announced by the Court yesterpeople would become excited, and they terday on the same motion If the Court Gov. Wise. A short afternoon's ride to the woods the could get some of the candidates to join did not at once deem this circumstance wholly insufficient, before the decision Is it not somewhere said, " And there was nized the prisoner Copeland as a fugitive to two or three matters connected with the Ohio. Among the letters is one signed H | time' affair. Though desirous to avoid forestall guage of man, a sentence creating a more A military goard is kept up, as tears are jug the trial of this case in regard to the seven letters from Kansas, and two from to the "conflict;" Gov. Seward alone affirms pared to prove that he had made open reor buzz of beetle. The very winds are The consternation among the slaves is peated, and constant acknowledgment of pondent of the Tribune, this letter has eviupon the dry leaves, the tiny pieces of of Col Washington's were, and they firmly gloried in it, and we have but an exhibit nuts, the remains of the repast of the nim- believe that the object of the prisoners was tron of the same spirit when he announced that he would permit no plea of insanity and the Companies all unable to build any corn was nipped by an untimely frost. Hunter called the attention of the Court Jury on the part of the prisoners, at great be expected. more. These bonds-i.e. some of them- they offered sacrifices to the Great Spirit. to the necessity of appointing additional length, giving the law applicable to the

> "Hullo, Mr. Page," growled the Mr Green, and read it to Brown, who deevident in his first and second sons hat | face the music.

The Judge charged the Jury not to con-In the West, as I have been told, the that the prisoners retained him, and de- session of the Court yesterday was occu- tion of her machinery was driven through N. Y Tribune.

Brown said that he was promised a fair of importance was elicited beyond what removed. The passengers, however, took - The telegraph announces that "Caplast week I believe the last one, based on there used to assemble, and governed alone bad health, and being unable to hear discussion, on his way to this ity, and were put ashore.

The Court met at II o'clock. Brown money, and Gov. Fietcher, who contribu-

But I grow wearisome; yet I must say Mr. Botts said that Mr. Brown had in- come to assist the counsel for Brown. At colored and white persons, to organize present, however, he did not feel disposed along the northern slave frontier, Virginia to take a part in the case, when he felt in- and Maryland especially, a series of stam

Mr. Hunter suggested that he had bete off in one night, and from the same place ter be qualified as a member of the bar. from 20 to 50 slaves; this to be effected har, Mr. Hoyt stated that he had not brought once or twice a week, along non-contigu his credentials of admission. The Court ous parts of the line, if possible without

Mr. Green said that his partner had read Slave women accustomed to field labor. letters from the fellow students of Mr. would be nearly as use ul as men. Every-Hoyt, alloding to him as a member of the thing being in readiness, to pass on the fo-

Conductor Phelps being recalled, Mr. struction and employment. Any dieaster at Hayword was intentional or not. There be pushed more and more southward, and him has been obtained. was no attack made on Brown's men until it might reasonably be said that the exafter Haywood was shot. He was shot by citement would impel the pro-slaverynes the armed men in the Winchester span of to commit some foolish blunders.

Col. Washington recalled. He said the posed, with some 25 to 50 white and col the release of the prisoners before the gen. quantity of space arms, to best up when he was struck down by the marines, promised him.

printed constitution and ordinance of the had actually commenced. All these letprovisional government, reading the first ters were written in 1858two clauses of the preamble, the 7th, 45th, and 48th articles, and briefly summed up baving for years fed the hungry with the had any quarrel with him."

Sheriff Campbell knows the hand-writ-

Brown said, either way as he pleased. A large number of letters were produced

5,100 letters from the citizens residing in Brown desired the counsel to come at once, were then called, and testified on the part [L. S.] of said State, at Indinapolis, this opinion, he can have a fairer trial if the Virginia, and Mr. Johnson of the northdefence were conducted by his own coun- ern district of Ohio. He has given the tems of Free Labor and Slave Labor were sel than if he were defended by the coun names of the parties at Oberlin who in the other must ultimately prevail through duced him to go to Harper's Ferry, who out our Union, the Pro Slavery Press of hir. Hunter observed that the prisoner's furnished the money for his expenses, &c. counsel, having renewed the motion of He also says that a movement of a similar yesterday for delay for a specific period, character was contemplated in Kentucky the The New York Express-one of the indicated and based upon information re- about the same time. Many persons in loudest and most industrious of these the question now was, whether there was fore been mentioned, are directly implicasufficient grounds in this to change the ted. his confession is withheld from the

COPELAND CONFESSES.

> Mr. Johnston was shown to day, a large them agree to disagree, as from 1776 on to number of letters implicating Gerrett Smith, and a number of prominent men pery begining of the Confederation and of the of Oberlin, Cieveland, and other points of Government, and they will exist to the end of Greety & Co., that had encised $41 for Gov. Seward's statement? Both agree as Ohio. It was directed to J. H. Kagie, one that it will ultimately sease. of the killed, but as he had been a corres- Edward Everett, who has not been suppos-

Another leiter, from Brown to one of his sons, dated April 16, 1859, details a visit to Gerrett Smith, at Peterboro', which the writer regarded as highly encouraging. that Swith gave him $100, together with a note that he considered good for $ 200 Territories of the Union would grow up inmore; also that South had written to his to Free States; but, in common with all or friends east that $2,000 must be raised for nearly all the Statesmen of the last genera Brown, of which he would agree to furnish timately presail throughout the Country: Ho one fifth bimself. There is also a notice thought he saw that, in the operation of the of a draft from the N. Y. State Bank, sent same causes which produced this result in him by direction of Smith Johnson hus bly taking place in the States north of the these beautiful prairies and grand old for- prefering Southern, and that the Court &c. He said that all the charges would be also a list of officers of the provisional cotton growing region. He inclined to the distinctly proven beyond the possibility government, and a list of contributors to opinion, that thus also, under the juffuence race. The forms, the rules, the ceremonies The Jury reported true bill against the of a doubt, either of which would be pun the project. The examination made by men in the northern States have given And, a lit le further on, Mr. Everett says money and influence in its behalf. When never failed to discharge the debt. If the the Commonwealth, and third, for murder. Messrs, Green and Botts addressed the the facts are made public, a sensation may subject [Slavery.] a diversity of opinion

FROM NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 27. The steamer New World met with a seand Mr. Everett ought to be indicted as rious accident last evening, while off Fort instigators of the rate capture and holding Washington, on her way to Albany, by white men and four negroes? What can the CHARLESTOWN, Oct 28 .- The afternoon the breaking of the connecting red. A por- detected incendraties may for themselves bonds at the same rate, and banks sprung bold pioneers - those who immediately sired to have Mr. Green to assist him, to pied with the examination of Col. Wash- the bottom of the boat, causing her to sink ington and Conductor Phelps, but nothing before the freight or baggage could be unable to do so, and down they went, as how, in days gone by, their fathers and trial, and that he was not then in circum- has already been disclosed. Cook passed refuge on the steam tog Ohio, and on a tain" Cook has been arrested. This speedily as they sprung into existence, and their mothers, their sisters and their bro- stances to attend a trial, on account of his through Prederick City yesterday, in the schooner that happened to be in the vicin- young man is a brother of Mrs. Willard. For the past three years his friends have came a little too soon, as they did not get cacy, pass the flying bours away. The his head. Under these circums ances he Cook was brought here at one o'clock ber of letters from Col. Forbes, the author it appears he has permitted himself to merry laugh rang out on the still air, the asked for a short delay of the trial. He this morning. He says that if Brown had of the instruction books for guerrilla war be duped into a grave offence by the Times are not so hard here as they were. honest ha! ha's! broke the surrounding was doing better than he expected, and he taken his advice in relation to mounting fare found at Brown's house, to various designing and infatuated old Brown.-People are getting out of debt by selling stillness, and all were truly happy. Is only asked for a short time, so that he his men, a force 1,000 strong could not republicans, principally to F. B. Sanborn, It is natural that the immediate relatives their property, or letting it be sold for there any thing else worth seeking for in might in some degree recover, and be able, have taken them. He says that Fred. Secretary of the Massachusetts Emigrant of "Captain" Cook should be deeply Douglas acted the coward, as he promised And Society, and Dr S. G. Howe of Box. affected in view of the probability of life, like they were six or eight months. To be happy is the true philosophy, and mature. The arrangements could be made. There is great rejoicing here at the ar-dated May, 1858, is prefaced with the following memorandum: " Please show to Ferry affair, and that they should I really feel very grateful to you for your kind of seeming happiness which laughs Court ordered the indictment to be read.

Geo H. Hoyt, Esq., of Boston, arrived Messrs Sanborn, Lawrence & Co. Copies Court ordered with them. E. Messrs Sanborn, Lawrence & Co. Copies Court ordered with them. E. Messrs Sanborn, Lawrence & Co. Copies Court ordered with them. E. Messrs Sanborn, Lawrence & Co. Copies Court ordered with them. E. Messrs Sanborn, Lawrence & Co. Copies Court ordered with them. paper, as it seems like an old acquaintance upon the lips but bleeds in the heart; but so that the pusoners could plead guilty this morning, to act as counsel for Brown. will be sent to Gov. Chase, who found Downled and D. W. Vourbons, who ac-Donald and D. W. Voornees, who accompained him at his earnest request left last evening for Charlestown, to render young Cook watever legitimate guilty, and desired to be tried separately nounced the arrival of Mr. Hoyt, who had Forbes' plan was, with carefully selected assistance they can .- State Sentinel of

A BOY ROBBED OF $4,800 WHILE ENTERING A BANK .- The N. Y. Post, of the 18th, says: Mr. J. Frost, broker, corner of Broadway and Park place, sent a boy, twelve years old, named George F. Luff, about three o'clock yesterday afternoon, with $4,800 in eastern bank notes, to deposite in the Park Bank. As he was entering the Bank a man dashed about a quart of spirits of turpentine over his person, and then snatching the bag from his hand, ran off and escaped. The turpentine, which was probably intended to put out the boy's eyes, was received. on his breast, which was badly burned Botts put a question to him, proposed by which might befal a stampede would, at by it. The lad was so taken aback Brown. He said the firing was commenced the utmost, compromise those only who that he was unable for a moment or by the men on the bridge who shot Hay might be engaged in that single one .- two to give an alarm, and almost inwood. The next firing was by the other Slave property would thus become unten- stantly the thief was in the crowd and party. Does not know whether the firing able near the frontier, that frontier would out of sight. Not the least trace of the Louisville Jouanal, speaks thus to Brown had a different scheme. He prohis readers; "Those who think that, in order to dress well, it is necessary eral firing commenced. Brown frequently quarter in Virginia to this object, that no well becomes true feminine beauty as suggested that the prisoners should cross preparatory notice having been given to simplicity. We have seen many a rethe bridge with him to the second ranal the slaves, an opportunity would be given markably fine person robbed of its fine lock, and not to be fired open until after them to rise. He calculated that he could effect by being over-dressed. Noththey had reached that point. No objection get, on the first night, from 200 to 500 - ing is more unbecoming than overwas made to this by any of the prisoners. Half of these he proposed to keep with loaded beauty. The simplicity of the Brown said that he was too old a soldier him, and make a dash at Harper's Ferry classic taste is seen in the old statues. to yield the advantage he possessed in manufactory, destroying what he could not and pictures, painted by men of very holding hostages. Heard Brown frequent- carry off. The other men not of this party superior artistic genius. In Athens ly complained of the bad faith of the peo- were to be sub-divided into three or four the ladies were not gaudily, put simply him make no threat against the people - original hand, and would beat up other ladies excited more admiration. So Cannot say that all the firing of Brown quarters, whence more mon would be sent also the noble old Homan matrons. intimates. One day in the early sum- daughter of his mother's brother have gave frequent orders not to fire on unarmed. The burden of Forbes letters are griev them, were always very plainly dresscitizens. Brown had his rifle in his band our complaints for not receiving the aid ed. Fashion often presents the lines and was cut over the head with a sword. A cotton speculation was devised by classic goddess.' Brown, but objected to by Forbes. Brown told him that Amos Lawrence, of Boston, 23 It is stated by the Alta Cali-Mr. Hunter laid before the jury the had promised him $7,000 when hostilities fornian that Mr. Broderick, "before the fight, expressed his firm determinetion not to shoot at Terry above Mons Light .-- Mr. A. E. Taylor, after the hips, as he did not consider he choicest Provisions, has now engaged in the laudable enterprise of giving light to Le The servant girls in New York those who sit in darkness, by manufacture city have struck for higher wageshis mother's side there has been repeated Brown said he would identify himself ing heavy Candles. He will be found at they want $10 a month. The Jourhis friends and others who want light. Fourth Avenue Cathedral.

SIMPLICITY OF DRESS .- Premies, of